Description

More safety in the dark
Reflectors make a significant contribution to road safety. The CONTEC reflective strap "R Flex" also provides even better visibility in the dark. The durable strap made of high-end reflective material can be easily fastened or adjusted with the practical hook-and-loop fastening and used over clothing. At calf level, it also keeps the trousers safely away from the chain.
The reflective strap is available in black and is a useful addition to safety gear on a bicycle.
