

SIGMA SPORT Head Light "Headled II"

Description

More power for running and outdoor

The SIGMA SPORT "Headled II" is the all-rounder for sports and outdoor activities.

Whether it's an after-work run, camping vacation or trekking tour, the headlamp has all the functions you need and more, with an output of 120 lumens and a light range of 35 meters. A booster mode provides short-term high power output. The simple operation and the pleasant wearing comfort with a weight of only 57 grams make the "Headled II" an ideal everyday and vacation companion.
