CONWAY ATB youth bike "Razz C 2.0" (#2)

Description

The schoolyard, the corner of the skatepark, the short ride to practice: The Razz C 2.0 clearly speaks the language of young riders who don't just want to park their bikes—they want to play with them, take them around corners, and test their limits. The 20-inch wheel size keeps it nimble, the aluminum frame feels built for everyday use plus adventure, and the hydraulic Rim Brakes kick in when it counts. Fenders and a Hub Dynamo take everyday life seriously without watering down the cool MTB look. Between curbs, schoolyards, and solid forest trails, this bike embodies freedom on a small scale.
