Description

With the Nara Air Link+ Parallelogramm Suspension Seatpost, we go one better in terms of riding comfort and technology for the e-bike: the steel spring with air damper combines the advantages of both suspension systems with parallelogram technology and ensures a particularly comfortable ride. The hardness of the suspension can be finely adjusted to your own body weight at any time using a suspension pumps without removing the seat post. This makes the Nara Air Link+ the right choice for the most demanding comfort requirements.

The Nara Air Link+ is the test winner* in the suspension seat post test of the 06-2025 issue of the magazine "ElektroRad"!

*In the test: 24 suspension seatposts, including 4 test winners, 3 price/ performance tips and 2 recommendations
