Description

The Condura Django Eco is more than just a bicycle tire for your 25 km/h e-bike - it is a statement for environmentally conscious riding without compromising on style and safety. In elegant black, this Clincher Tires impresses with its robust construction and well thought-out features. The integrated Reflective Stripes ensure optimum visibility in traffic - especially in poor light conditions.
With a TPI/EPI of 22, the Django Eco offers a stable carcass that stands for durability, puncture protection and pleasant riding comfort. Developed for city and trekking use, it masters asphalt, cobblestones and light gravel paths with ease.
