Description

Comfort for Advanced Riders
The athletic challenge of really pushing yourself to the limit while enjoying the scenery: road bike rides should, above all, be fun. To make that happen, the Handlebar Tape–which you're constantly gripping–needs to perform well, be comfortable, and hold up to a lot of wear and tear. That's where the "Tempo Microtex Bondcush Soft" from FIZIK comes in.

This Handlebar Tape also impresses with its versatility. For example, a layer of polymer foam helps dampen vibrations. Combined with 3 mm-thick Microtex, this results in comfort and high reliability.

What makes this Handlebar Tape special is its "Soft" feature: While the surface is soft and moisture-repellent, it has a matte finish.
Weighing just 51.4 g, the tape is available in 5 attractive paints. It's the perfect bike accessory for road cyclists who value performance and high quality.
