

HERTH+BUSS Protective hose

Description

HERTH+BUSS Protective Hose

corrugated hose for mechanical protection of cables in the automotive industry and in mechanical engineering, black, 50m

Can be used in the electrical industry, apparatus engineering and shipbuilding or wherever pipelines are automatically laid and / or retrofitted into protective pipes., 7,5mm, closed, material: polyamide 6

|                  |               |
|------------------|---------------|
| Article number:  | 24808925      |
| Original number: | 51271150      |
| EAN:             | 4026736031954 |
| EVP:             | 2.00 € |

Technical data

|                      |                            |
|----------------------|----------------------------|
| Design               | protection against martens |
| Diameter             | 7.5 mm                     |
| Features             | universal                  |
| Range of application | passenger car              |
| Main colour          | black                      |
| Length               | 50000.0 mm                 |
| Material             | polyamide                  |
| Weight               | 0.010 kg                   |